Youth singing at "Lutheran" FELC

Rationale

The spiritual, social and cultural devastation brought about by the destruction of churches in Russia by Joseph Stalin will take years to change, but it is happening as God's Word is taught and believed. The Friendship English Language Camps will impact generations through teaching God's Word using conversational English to junior high, high school and college students.

Details

The Friendship English Language Camps will be held in Kondopoga and Petrozavodsk, Russia, ≈ May 26 - June 15, 2015. Each of two "Camps" involves a week-long (5 days) teaching session with 9-12 students and a Russian classroom English teacher using the Bible; East European Mission Network (EEMN) provides both the organizational logistics and the curriculum and materials as you build relationships of love and care with your students. Several Northeastern Minnesota Synod members have previously participated; in 2010 eleven members accompanied 17 other folks from other areas, sharing the love of Jesus with ≈ 500 staff and students in five schools, including the new Camp in Kondopoga near Petrozavodsk. Participants stay in host homes, learning more about the culture and the people.

Lutheran Camp

EEMN also includes a Camp for Lutheran youth organized by Nadia and Pastor Alex Krongolm from the Petrozavodsk Lutheran congregation; our Synod helps support the youth ministry programs of Nadia and Alex. Because of our Companion Synod relationship with the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Ingria in Russia, EEMN especially invites our support and participation.

Costs and Options

The cost for the 2014 Petrozavodsk 3-week mission trip was be $1,675 ($1,375 if you have a Russian visa) plus airfare from Minneapolis - see web site for 2015 costs. Other options include programs in St. Petersburg and other cities in Russia and Eastern Europe. See EEMN web page: www.eemn.org (Short-Term Missions).
